President's Message

We finally made it into 2004. The recent economic activity and increase in job creation during the second half of 2003 should increase our optimism looking ahead.

The December PDM - a joint session with the local ISM Chapter – was very well attended. The topic of the speaker was presented in a manner that contained many relevant items that we can pursue professionally. We have some plant tours coming up for the remainder of this year that should be of interest to all. We are in the final stages of finalizing all of the details.

With the coming of the new year comes another opportunity toward certification maintenance for your CPIM/CIRM/CFPIM designation: the time to gather you points will be here before you know it. Develop a plan to get your points that will not create havoc in your life. Next month, I will provide a brief outline on the many ways available to accumulate points for certification maintenance.

Check out our web site, Kim is always adding enhancements to make it a valuable tool to the membership. Give us your comments.

Finally, I am glad to report that we have a full complement
- as we speak – of board members. This will allow members to focus on their primary responsibilities in lieu of wearing more than one hat. We are still eager to talk to anyone that has an interest.

Our education program has drawn little interest this year.
We would like to hear from the membership if it has been deficient in offerings, locations, etc. Use the web site or email addresses to provide your comments.

We're listening.

I hope that everyone enjoyed the Holidays.
